Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

On March 8, 2005, The Men's Wearhouse, Inc. (the "Company") committed to a course of action in connection with the termination of operations of the Company's R&D retail concept "Eddie Rodriguez". As a result of the concept's failure to achieve the economic results that in the Company's view would support further expansion, the Company has determined that there will be no further investments made in Eddie Rodriguez and that the six stores currently operating will be wound down over the course of fiscal 2005. It is currently anticipated that the stores will conclude operations at the end of October 2005.

The Company expects the total amount to be incurred in connection with the termination of Eddie Rodriguez's operations to be in the range of $6 million to $8 million, which consists primarily of (i) approximately $400,000 to be paid in severance and stay bonuses, (ii) the write off of approximately $3.6 million in net fixed assets and (iii) approximately $2.3 million to dispose of the existing six leases. The Company also estimates that approximately $3 million of the charge will result in future cash expenditures.
